

National Highway Authority

PRESS RELEASE: November 16, 2018

Advisor to PM on Institutional Reforms and Austerity Dr. Ishrat Hussain addressing NHA employees regarding reforms in Service Structures

Advisor to the Prime Minister on Institutional Reforms and Austerity Dr. Ishrat Hussain has said, National Highway Authority may be transformed into a role model department through reforms in services infrastructure. Termination of traditional pay scales, promotion rules, seniority list and ACRs are important parts of such reforms. Present government is committed to bring about good governance and better delivery system in public sector organization. He was addressing officers and workers of National Highway Authority on institutional reforms, re-organization of the Federal government for better public service delivery and economic growth, at NHA headquarters here today. Secretary Communications Mr. Shoaib Ahmad Siddiqui and Chairman NHA Mr. Jawwad Rafique Malik briefed about existing service structure, performance level and challenges. NHA's Member Planning Mr. Asim Amin, General Manager RAMD Mr. Ikramus Saqlian Haider and others presented individual experiences and observations with regard to service rules and injustices being faced by the NHA employees Dr. Ishrat Hussain said, Prime Minister of Pakistan Imran Khan is strong willed on introducing reforms based on termination of corruption and delivery of justice that will help highlight soft image of Pakistan. He said, government is promoting dialogue culture among stakeholders for better service reforms, by reviewing bureautic channel and performance of public sector organizations.