Director General (Operations) of National Accountability Bureau (NAB) Zahir Shah has said that each individual will have to pass through process of self accountability to curb corruption in every sphere of life. Pakistan is bestowed with abundance of resources. Misuse of these resources, bribery and such practices as well are major hindrances in way of making Pakistan

Corruption Free State. In commemoration of International Anti Corruption Day, he was addressing a seminar on “Corruption curbs economic growth” jointly held by National Highway Authority (NHA) and NAB at NHA headquarters here today. Mr. Zahir Shah also termed increasing population one of major causes of slow economic growth. To this effect, he recalled endeavours being undertaken by the NAB for termination of corruption through awareness campaigns and enforcement of relevant laws. Commending the construction work of roads and their maintenance activity by NHA, he said, heavy amounts are required for this purpose. He said, the need is to collect toll tax honestly so that maximum revenue could be collected. He said, joint efforts are needed to achieve a corruption free Pakistan.

Earlier, NHA’s Member Administration Capt(R) Mushtaq Ahmed appreciated the endeavours taken by NAB to curb corrupt practices in society.

The seminar was rounded off with exchange of souvenirs from both the sides.
